MHACBO Letter of Recovery Verification

To meet MHACBO's requirements for recovery verification, you'll need a letter from a professional colleague or supervisor. This letter must include:

Minimum Recovery Time:

- For Certified Recovery Mentors (CRMs), the letter must clearly indicate at least 1 year of substance use recovery time (2 years after January 1, 2025).
- For Certified Gambling Recovery Mentors (CGRMs), the letter must clearly indicate 2 years of gambling addiction recovery time.

Professional Letterhead:

- The letter should be on professional letterhead to ensure its authenticity

Authorship:

The letter should come from one of the following:

- A behavioral health professional (such as a CRM, PSS, CADC, QMHA, QMHP, CGAC, CGRM, LPC, LCSW, etc.)
- An allied professional (e.g., a P.O., judge, DHS Case Worker, Pastor/Minister)
- A healthcare provider (physician or psychiatrist)

Alternative Options:

If you're unable to obtain a letter from the specified professionals, MHACBO provides alternative options for recovery verification. You can submit a notarized copy of the form on the next page from one of the following sources

- Broader Recovery Community: Obtain a letter from someone in the broader recovery community, such as your Sponsor or Accountability Partner.
- Family Member or Spouse: Attestation from a family member or spouse who can verify your recovery.
- Self-Attestation: You can also provide self-attestation, acknowledging your own recovery.
